JOÃO RICARDO DE BARROS OLIVEIRA creates sound sculptures and designs new instruments, exploring the production of sounds with a distinct identity. His pieces function as ever-evolving sculptural objects, continuously transforming into new forms and sonic textures. His artistic practice spans various fields of sound research, interweaving experimentation, materiality, and perception, while proposing new modes of listening and engaging with space.